Tracie Hunter is the pastor of Western Hills Brethren in Christ in Cincinnati, OH and became the first African American elected to Hamilton County’s (OH) Juvenile Court in 2010.

Justice, Peace and Racial Reconciliation in the Church workshop

Saturday, March 28 9:00 a.m.

Bishop Lynn Thrush will interview Pastor Tracie Hunter about her experience of faith and race and how that interacts with the court and prison system. The group will participate in a time of learning and discussion shaped by the themes and issues in the interview.

Participants will come away with a better understanding of the narrative of racial difference, learn more about Pastor Tracie’s story, and be equipped with some Biblical study tools on this topic to bring back to their congregations.

Lunch will be provided at noon. Please RSVP by March 24.
